ces for both coasts for the week, 4,650,000 bush-The two Northwestern points had 800 cars, mpared with 718 last Friday and 1,349 last year. Here there were 102 cars, compared with 133 last Priday and 125 last year. Outside December shorts re getting out and reselling for May. There were lications to-day that a prominent local prohe market, was getting out. Minneapolis reports per cent of its milling capacity closed, although sually at this time of the year the mills are runing over time in order to get flour out by lake. ember corn held its own, keeping within a be range, and closing just where it did Thursday, 3140 cal figures showed an average yield per acre of 25.2 bushels, which on an area of 81,607,000 acres, means a crop of 2,656,486,000 bushels.

On the curb prices were not changed, however, liverpool cables were %d to %d lower. Argentine shipments were enormous, 2,284,000 bushels. Seabard clearances were 200,000 bushels, and clearances decreased to 1,51,000 bushels. The shipping demand was poor; but receipts were light and stocks small. The inspection was only 222 cars, with the sample of the sample of the sample of the sample of the freight rate of two weeks ago. The Desapher line shows lack of demand.

Oats traders did little except to ende-yor to keep in line with corn. Prices were within 4c range all day; the close barely 4c under Thursday. December oats at 22%c and May at 23%c. Receipts were only 217 cars; the estimated for Saturday is 175 cars. Clearances were only 32,000 bushels. The shipping demand was slow and speculation very flat. Flaxsced closed where it did Thursday, to 4c lower. December at 31,27% and May at 31,27%. The three points had 197 cars flax, against 180 last year. The English houses were selling January pork and ribs. Shorts were covering, notably the Cudahys. It was a small day. Hogs were 5c lower, with 35,000 received and 20,000 for Saturday. The talent keeps bearish.
